

■ Two-part presentation on: Good Governance in the North

As part of the ICNGD Lecture Series, the International Centre for Northern Governance and Development is hosting a two-part mini presentation entitled Good Governance in the North. This event is public and faculty, students and staff are welcome. An opportunity for discussion will follow the presentations.

Tuesday, Oct. 9th, 2012

1:00-2:00 p.m.

Kirk Hall, Room 227

Refreshments will be served.

Presentation #1: Self-governments & their influence on resource development

Presenter: Dr. Gerlis Fugmann, Post-Doctoral Fellow (ICNGD)

Presentation #2: Dependency, the resource curse, and the taxation solution

Presenter: Dr. Heather Exner-Pirot, Post-Doctoral Fellow (ICNGD & JSGS)

For more information: 966-1609 or colleen.cameron@usask.ca

pleasejoin us

International Centre for Northern Governance and Development

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

www.usask.ca/icngd